

ALFRED MEDICAL RESEARCH
& EDUCATION PRECINCT

Save the Date

Thursday 11th APRIL, 2013

7th Annual AMREP World Health Day Forum

Reducing the Global Impact of High Blood Pressure: Current status and future challenges

9:00am – 5:00pm

Alfred Medical Research & Education Precinct (AMREP)

Lecture Theatre

75 Commercial Road, Melbourne, Victoria

Speakers (confirmed so far):

- Professor John Chalmers, Head of the Professorial Unit at The George Institute and Emeritus Professor of Medicine at the University of Sydney and Flinders University, Australia.
- Dr K. Srinath Reddy, President of the Public Health Foundation of India and the World Heart Federation
- Professor Kavumpurathu R. Thankappan, Head of the Achutha Menon Centre, Sree Chitra Tirunal Institute for Medical Sciences & Technology, India.
- Professor Amanda Thrift, Head of the Epidemiology and Prevention Division, Stroke and Ageing Research, Southern Clinical School, Medicine, Monash University, Australia.
- Dr Xuefeng Zhong, NHMRC China-Australia Research Fellow, Director of Institute of Health Education, Anhui CDC, China & Director of China Peers for Progress Network.

Registrations open mid-February. If you would like to receive updates about this event, please register your details at: iphu-worldhealthday@monash.edu

An initiative of the AMREP Global Health Consortium

