The Symposium will include plenaries and oral and poster presentations covering the major topics relevant to diabetes epidemiology.

The Training Program is ideal for those who are beginning to work in diabetes epidemiology.

Registration is now open.

For additional information, please visit the IDEG website at www.bakeridi.edu.au/ideg

Official Academic Satellite Symposium of the 2013 World Diabetes Congress
Melbourne 2–6 December 2013
Registration information and accommodation

Details on registration and official meeting hotels are available on the IDEG website (www.bakeridi.edu.au/ideg). Special rates at selected hotels are available for IDEG attendees.

Abstract deadline

The deadline for abstracts is Friday, 30 August 2013. Details on abstract format and the submission process are available on the IDEG website.

IDEG Training Program

The one-day IDEG Training Program is ideal for those who are beginning to work in diabetes epidemiology. Applications for the Training Program close on Monday, 9 September 2013. Details on the application process are available at www.bakeridi.edu.au/ideg

HARRY KEEN MEMORIAL AWARD

The diabetes epidemiology community suffered a major loss with the passing of Dr Harry Keen on 5 April, 2013. IDEG has created the Harry Keen Memorial Award to commemorate his accomplishments by recognising outstanding young investigators who have made a significant impact on the field of diabetes epidemiology.

The complete selection and eligibility criteria are:

- Age ≤ 40 years at the time of the award presentation
- Outstanding contributions to the field of diabetes epidemiology as judged by productivity and impact of publications and scientific presentations
- Significant accomplishments in mentorship and teaching on the subject of diabetes epidemiology.
- MD, PhD or equivalent doctoral degree
- Notable leadership roles on expert panels, multi-centre studies, advisory committees, and similar activities reflecting national or international involvement

Nominations for this award have now closed.

For additional information on the International Diabetes Epidemiology Group meeting, please visit the IDEG website at www.bakeridi.edu.au/ideg or email ideg@bakeridi.edu.au