Ms Susan Marlin
President and CEO Clinical Trials Ontario

How clinical trials are organized/funded in Canada

Susan Marlin is the President and CEO of Clinical Trials Ontario, a not-for-profit organization established by the Province of Ontario in 2012 to make Ontario a preferred location for global clinical trials while maintaining the highest ethical standards. As the first President and CEO of the organization she has led the establishment of the organization and the development and implementation of a province-wide streamlined research ethics review system. Prior to serving in this position she spent a decade working in research administration at Queen's University, most recently serving as the Associate Vice-Principal of Research.

Professor Tom Walley CBE
Director of the NIHR HTA Programme, Professor of Clinical Pharmacology at Liverpool University and Consultant Physician at the Royal Liverpool University Hospital

The NIHR Model in practice

Tom formerly headed a research group at Liverpool University, focusing on drug prescribing; pharmaceutical policy; and clinical effectiveness and cost-effectiveness. In June 2008, he was awarded a CBE by the Queen for his services to medicine.
