

The South East Palliative Care Service Essay Prize
for an essay about Palliative Care

2009
Selection Criteria

Background:

The South East Palliative Care Service Essay Prize for $500 is to be awarded to an undergraduate student enrolled in any Health discipline on the Peninsula Campus, who writes an essay about an aspect of palliative care. The paper should seek to extend current knowledge and may address areas like clinical care or service delivery. This prize is designed to build awareness and knowledge of palliative care within all health disciplines. Further information about South East Palliative Care can be obtained from <http://www.sepallcare.org.au>

- 1. All essays must have been submitted & graded by unit/course coordinator as part of 2009 unit assessment prior to being eligible to apply for this award. Only the two highest ranking essays will be considered from each unit. Each application must be accompanied by the Unit coordinators endorsement to be considered for the prize.
- 2. The essay must be clearly written, logically constructed and demonstrate a wide use of recent literature. Awareness of the philosophy and principles of palliative care and its practice in Australia should be evident.
- 3. The essay topic must be of relevance to an aspect of current palliative care practice either in a clinical practice or service delivery setting.
- 4. Students applying must be enrolled in a Health discipline on the Peninsula Campus of Monash University, and are only eligible to win the prize once.
