Honours Information Session

The School of Psychology and Psychiatry offers

- Honours in Psychology
- Honours in Bachelor of Behavioural Neuroscience

The Honours year introduces students to advanced research in psychology, neuroscience and mental health through a research project supervised by academic staff. Students are introduced to wider research and professional issues in the relevant discipline.

Research projects are also offered as part of the following programs:

- Bachelor of Biomedical Science (Honours)
- The Honours Degree Bachelor of Medical Science

Information Session

When? Tuesday 6 September, 5.30 – 7 pm
Where? Clayton campus, Building 25 Lecture Theatre S4
RSVP: Friday 26 August

For more information:
www.med.monash.edu.au/psych/students/info-events.html

Registration (essential):
Email: events.psych@monash.edu
‘Honours’ in subject line please or Tel: 03 9905 3975
Light refreshments provided